

Foodbuy Named Supplier of the Year by HealthTrust Performance Group

Charlotte, NC August 14, 2024 – Foodbuy announced today that it has been named the Supplier of the Year by HealthTrust Performance Group, a leading healthcare performance improvement organization. The award was presented to Foodbuy at the HealthTrust University Conference in Orlando, Florida on August 13, 2024.

As HealthTrust’s sole source supplier for food and distribution management, Foodbuy was recognized for continuous improvement in delivering industry-leading value to HealthTrust members while consistently seeking new and innovative ways to improve services, support and value.

The annual Supplier Excellence Awards acknowledge the support and service of suppliers in supporting the HealthTrust membership.

“Without the commitment of every contracted supplier to implement and maintain their HealthTrust supplier agreement, we could not provide our members with the innovative products and services essential to managing cost, quality and patient outcomes,” said Jocelyn Bradshaw, Chief Operating Officer of GPO Operations at HealthTrust. “We are proud to recognize these outstanding suppliers who have risen to the top by delivering unparalleled value and best-in-class service. Each has demonstrated exceptional performance in helping our members serve their patients and communities.”

When presenting the award to Foodbuy, Bradshaw added, “Their dedication to performance improvement has made their HealthTrust solution an engine for success across all care settings as they serve you and your patients.”

In response to the award, Dennis Hogan, CEO of Foodbuy USA notes, “Foodbuy is honored to be the HealthTrust Performance Group 2024 Supplier of the Year. This award is a reflection of all the fantastic teams within both Foodbuy and HealthTrust. I look forward to the continued growth of our partnership with HealthTrust, as our teams continually strive to make a positive impact on the healthcare procurement landscape.”
